PHOENIX, Ariz. Six partner agencies on the 13-acre campus, which provides wrap-around services for individuals experiencing homelessness, will participate. Appointments are not required. Free parking will be available in the lot adjacent to the building.

“These are opportunities for anyone interested in a career with a purpose,” said Brent Downs, executive director at St. Joseph the Worker, which is hosting the event. “The positions are very diverse, from administrative jobs to crisis intervention specialists, both client facing and behind the scenes at the campus, which operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.”

ABOUT THE HUMAN SERVICES CAMPUS: Founded in 2005, the Human Services Campus is a collaborative force of partner organizations united on one campus to end homelessness. Located just west of downtown Phoenix, 16 independent agencies on the Campus see nearly 1,000 individuals every day, offering a holistic range of client services including: reunification with family and friends; mental, physical and dental health; shelter; employment; meals; legal services and housing. Having all of these resources in one location with intra-agency communications makes it more feasible to provide a customized engagement for each client to help end their homelessness.
